

New Student Orientation

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

2025 Fall Orientation Leader

Fall Orientation Leaders (OLs) serve incoming new students and families during Fall Orientation. OLs provide an energetic and welcoming experience for freshman and transfer students by leading small groups, providing insight into the academic experience, and developing impactful connections.

Qualifications

- Must remain in good judicial and academic standing with Providence College
- Preferred qualities: communication skills, adaptability, time management, passion for serving others and supportive member of a team.

Benefits

- Fall OLs will be paid $15.00/hour.
- Fall OLs will develop public speaking, leadership, customer service and team building skills.
- Fall OLs will support the transition of 25-40 new students through fall orientation; providing them with the opportunity to develop impactful relationships with new students.
- Fall OLs will have the opportunity to move into their on-campus housing assignment early.
- Fall OLs develop lasting friendships with a dynamic group of fellow student leaders.
- Fall OLs will be provided with free meals through training and Fall Orientation days.
- Fall OLs will receive at least four New Student Orientation apparel items.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Lead a small group of students (with OL partner) through each day of Fall Orientation.
- Provide insight on Providence College resources, departments, and academics (will be trained).
- Provide an energetic and positive first experience to new students and families.
- Attend all trainings and program sessions, as listed in “Important Dates” section. You must attend all dates of Fall OL Training and Orientation sessions. Fall Orientation responsibilities are prioritized over other on-campus student leadership duties during orientation.
